Election day was the most quiet one ever held in St. Louis. Steam was shut off early in the morning and was not turned on again till after dark, after which things were red hot till midnight.

The excitement attending election has driven all thoughts of the SMALL-POX Into the shade. It is said, by the dectors that the deaths last week were more numerous, although the cases were not as many, than the week previous. Many persons are wearing about their necks, as prophylastic to help off the disease, little bags filled with sweet smelling arafætida and camphor, a delicious compound, the aroms of which, as it is constantly wasted by their nostrils, must transport the happy possessors to the clysian fields. THE EPIZOOT

Has not taken root yet-not much ; but we live in happy expectations of the same. The week has ushered in with a coldwet, driving storm.

AMUSEMENTS. The different places of amusements have been only tolerably well attended during the week with one exception. We refer to DEBAR'S OPERA HOUSE.

The general countenance of George J. lones, Esq., the worthy treasurer of which, has worn an unusually placid smile for the past two weeks, as the greenbacks have lowed through the little pigeon hole the in box-office in liberal quantities night after night, by crowds eager to see Chanfran in "Kit," which, though a purely sensational piece, full of shooting, fire, stabbing &c., has created quite a furore by his inmitabe acting. After all "DeBar's" is he jovial place for the old citizens of St. Louis, and will continue to be until a new and more modern temple for the drama is crected. 'Kit" has been handsomely mounted and placed on the stage in unexeptionable style. Several of the local cenes, including the bar and billiard room of the Southern hotel, the levee and deparure of the "Medora," the cabin of the same under way, together with the final explosion and burning up of the steamer are well wrought up and nightly bring forth enthusiastic applause. A much desired improvement has been effected in the theatre, by extending the paraquette back to the dress circle and removing the pit which puts the "boys" all in the upper regions, where they can yell to their heart's

THE HAYDIN ORCHESTRA. An amateur association, composed of some lifty of our well-known citiezns, gave the first of a series of subscription concerts at the Mercantile Library ball a few evenings since, to a crowded audience, which, for musical discrimination and refinement, has not been surpassed this season. We were much surprised at the precision, harmony and exquisite style with which the contents of the excellent programme were executed. They could not have obained a better compliment than the fact that the entire audience remained till the close of the concert, which, we are sorry to to the say, is seldom the case at any entertainuietus on ment in St. Louis. rice, pass
